

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

The UFSMA 2004 Annual Conference will be held Thursday November 4- Friday November 5 at the Cottontown Village in Washington City, Utah. Cottontown Village is located at 25 North 300 West in Washington, Utah and is just minutes away from St. George. The conference will have two tracks, one for floodplain management, and one for stormwater management. We are looking forward to a great conference with informative presentations and lots of fun added in. We hope you can attend.

Conference Fee = $75.00 per person

This fee includes all your materials and meals during the conference including the awards dinner November 4, and a one-year membership for the Utah Floodplain and Stormwater Management Association. For a spouse / significant other dinner ticket, please add $15.00.

SPECIAL EVENTS

UFSMA will be holding a dinner at the Cottontown Village Barn on Thursday evening. The cost for registrants is included in the registration fee. Guest fee is $15/pp

Awards will be presented during our dinner on Thursday November 4. If you would like to nominate someone who has exemplified outstanding leadership in our field, or a group that has completed a great project relating to floodplains or stormwater, then email those nominations to

Judy at judywatanabe@utah.gov. We enjoy recognizing those who have done such great work.

A test for the Certified Floodplain Manager will also be administered. If you are interested in taking this test, please contact Judy Watanabe at (801) 538-3750 or email at judywatanabe@utah.gov for more information.
